Course Overview

This course is for those who wish to return to study, seek a career change, undertake voluntary work, enhance career prospects through extra qualifications or train as professional counsellors.

This course runs once a week for 10 weeks. Monday evening (5.45pm - 8.45pm)

Course Requirements

As a minimum requirement you must have English GCSE and be able to confidently produce work at Level 2 standard. We are able to take people of 18 years or over. However, due to the nature of the course, emotional resilience and an ability to reflect and draw on life experiences is essential. You will need to understand the demanding and personal nature of the course. Whilst this course is by no means 'therapy' for some it can present an emotional challenge.

Assessment

Internal assessment, external assessment, internal and external moderation. Specific requirements and restrictions may apply to individual units within qualifications.

Progression

Successful completion of this course will provide you with one of the entrance requirements for SEG Certificate in Counselling Skills Level 3.

Please note that progression from the Level 2 programme onto the Level 3 programme is not automatic. You are advised to check with your tutors regarding selection procedures which may require further evidence of your suitability to progress to Level 3.

Career Options

Counsellor, Guidance Officer
